

Student Checklist for Persuasive Writing

Name _____ Date _____

I need to make sure I have ..... 	I found... 	My "editing partner" found...
I have a clearly stated opinion focused on a topic outlined in the writing prompt.
My reasons are supported with facts and/or text evidence and make sense in the order I wrote them in.
I used transition words and linking words.
I used clauses and phrases to make my sentences more complex.
My sentences have subject/verb agreement.
My paper is organized with paragraphs that include indentions.
All my sentences include punctuation and capitalization when needed.

Student Checklist for Informational/Expository Writing

Name _____ Date _____

I need to make sure I have ..... 	I found... 	My "editing partner" found...
I grouped my facts into paragraphs and organized them to answer the topic outlined
I used at least one graph or picture to aide my information.
I used concrete details and examples I found within resources to aide my facts in my writing.
I have a conclusion that "sums up" all my information.
I used transition words and linking words.
I used clauses and phrases to make my sentences more complex.
My sentences have subject/verb agreement.
My paper is organized with paragraphs that include indentions.
All my sentences include punctuation and capitalization when needed.

Student Checklist for Narrative Writing

Name _____ Date _____

I need to make sure I have ..... 	I found... 	My "editing partner" found...
I have a clear point of view and narrator established.
My events are organized in a logical order.
My conclusion "sums up" the events I wrote about in a logical way and provides closure for the reader.
I used sensory details to help my reader visualize my story better.
I used transition words and linking words.
I used clauses and phrases to make my sentences more complex.
My sentences have subject/verb agreement.
My paper is organized with paragraphs that include indentions.
All my sentences include punctuation and capitalization when needed.		